

I am opposed to changing the Indiana No Call List provisions to exempt banking institutions. I registered on the No Call List because I do not want calls from any businesses. I also believe that the exemptions for other entities, such as charities, realtors, etc. should also be removed. People have the right to exclude all unwanted calls from within their homes.